Are the gardeners ready? Time to start planting that strong opponent of the high cost of living.

With the proposed addition of another candy factory, Burlington is rapidly gaining the title of the Chocolate city.

The attendance of 300 voters at a special village meeting in Brattleboro must have been a source of comfort to those people in Brattleboro who have bewailed the lack of interest displayed by citizens in matters of home government. Certainly it would be pleasing in Barre and other communities if as many as 300 voters could be induced to attend some of the special meetings that are being called now and then to transact very important business. One-tenth of that number is the average attendance at special city meetings in Barre.

The news from Stockholm that the allies were intending to make an invasion of Russia, with Petrograd as the objective of the drive, has not been supported by any facts and may be put down as mere froth of the imagination. The time for fighting seems to be past—in the present war at least—and it is not considered probable that the allies contemplate any military movement of such far-reaching consequence as a further invasion of Russian territory and the proposed capture of Petrograd. So far as the people of the United States are concerned, they probably would veto any project which involved American soldiers.

DEATH IN FOREST FASTNESSES.

The finding of the body of a man in the forest lying between Brunswick and Wenlock in Essex county probably means the last chapter in a case of a person being really lost in the forest and dying of starvation—a situation sometimes read about but never considered seriously by those not acquainted with the terrors of huge areas of woodland. The small tracts of woods which most people are acquainted with give but little conception of the size of the forest areas in some parts of the northern country; and even as far south as northern Vermont there are sizeable areas in which a person unaccustomed to forests might easily become bewildered and turned completely around. Some of the most experienced woodsmen always provide themselves with compass before entering the larger tracts of forest, and if they find it difficult to find their way about, how much more difficult would it be for a stranger and one not trained in getting about in the forests to find his way? This case in hand recalls the experience which befell two guests at a large summer hotel in northern New Hampshire, only a little northeast of the place where the body of this wayfarer was found, when they became lost while following a well-defined trail in the forest and were found after more than a day's search and after they had given up hope of getting out of the forest on their own initiative. In the Brunswick case it is likely that the situation was similar to that of the summer visitors referred to, only the unfortunate fellow did not have the business and social connections of the other two and was, therefore, not made the object of immediate search when his absence was noted. Then, too, the comings and goings of lumber workers in the north woods are so frequent as to excite little comment, and a man might be gone for months or forever without causing any more than mild wonder among his former associates.

HARRY DANIELS.THE POLICE FORCE OF THE BODY

DAY and night—without ceasing—a struggle is going on in your body between the germs of disease and the white blood corpuscles—the police force of the human body.

If this police force weakens, disease germs gain a foothold—sickness follows.

Constipation is the most common and dangerous way of corrupting the human police force. Food waste remains too long in the intestines—decays—poisons the blood—and opens the way for attack by the germs that cause tuberculosis, diphtheria, pneumonia and a multitude of other ills.

The culpable habit of using salts, pills, mineral waters, castor oil, etc., to force the bowels to move, makes this condition even worse, as constipation returns almost immediately.

Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels.

Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant. Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and keep your police force on the job.

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

East Calais, VermontReason No. 10 — "Why we advertise
National Bank Protection for your Savings"

An Indubitable Fact

It is an indubitable fact that the National Banks of the country are in a stronger position to-day than ever before, and this is due in no small measure to competent supervision, expert and thorough examinations, and a high degree of official responsibility in the management of each bank.

We have considered in previous advertisements some of the reasons why thoughtful people everywhere are impressed with the strength and efficiency of our great banking system.

The banks are not only the great credit reservoirs for the commercial and industrial interests of the nation, but their growth and stability reflect the confidence which the great mass of working people have in them as the protector of their savings.

You have an opportunity to nationalize your savings and increase your increment with four per cent interest. The strength of this great federal banking organization is at your command.
